DETAILED ACTION

Claims

1. Claims 1-21 are pending.

Information Disclosure Statement

2. The information disclosure statement (IDS) submitted on April 2, 2001 (Paper No. 2) was considered by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. Claims 3, 4, 7, 8, 12, 15, 18 and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

What do "blended glass temperature" (claims 3 and 7) and "rated burst pressure" (claims 4, 8, 12, 15, 18 and 21) mean? Please clarify the claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.

Art Unit: 1772

4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.
6. Claims 1-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fugoso et al (US 5,964,778).

Fugoso teaches that blends of polyurethanes (col. 4, line 64) can be used in making catheter balloons (title). It teaches that the balloons are made by radially expanding a tube at a temperature above its glass transition temperature.

Fugoso fails to teach that the polyurethanes in the blends are selected to have glass transition temperatures within the ranges claimed.

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time that the invention was made to employ, as the polyurethanes in the blends of Fugoso, polyurethanes having low glass transition temperatures in order to lower the energy required to make the balloons.

The selection of polyurethanes having low glass temperatures and, therefore, low production temperatures is deemed a matter of engineering choice, depending upon the need to lower energy demand in the manufacturing process.
